

To assess tissue remodelling, captured bladder fractions are compared by mouse. From 3 to 24 months, urothelial cells increase (44.0% to 75.9%) and mesenchymal cells decrease (50.3% to 15.7%). These are captured proportions, not absolute abundance. Points: mice; bars: means; triangles: females.